

Position Title: Senior Logistician

Location: Killeen, TX

Job Description:

The Sr. Logistician will oversee Military Logistics program serviced from our Killeen (near Fort Hood), Texas location. The Sr. Logistician must plan, organize, direct and control the activities and resources associated with the contract. He/she must also ensure the team meets the requirements of the contract and interface with the government contract representatives.

Individual must have staff level logistics planning experience and can write logistics plan to support supply and maintenance operations,

Job Requirements:

Candidates must have superior management and supervisory experience in the Logistics and supply field, as well as demonstrated experience with combat equipment systems at the MAJ/LTC or GS-11/12 Civil Service level.

Must have previous logistics experience at Division/Corps level in new equipment fielding, analysis and review of Material Requirements Lists, equipment, and associated documents desired.

Experience in determining, ordering, tracking, and monitoring equipment fielding packages under Army programs; assisting with timelines for equipment fielding; coordinating the movement of support packages for equipment in and out of gaining unit installations; and coordinating materiel releases; coordinating hand-off, and property transfer accounting coordination.

Must also have experience with providing timely identification of facilities, funds, documentation, personnel, support equipment, ASL/PLL, publications, and training aids requirements to support all fielding activities for each new tactical system.

Candidate should have 12 years of progressively responsible work experience in military logistics. A Bachelor's degree is a plus. He/she should also have 5 years of supervisory experience to include effective management skills. Must be able to work independently and make appropriate decisions as necessary.